DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-10, 14, 18-22 and 32-37, drawn to methods of raising and maintaining hematocrit in a mammal comprising administering an analog of erythropoietin (EPO), classified in class 514, subclass 12.
- II. Claims 11-13, 15-17, 23-28 and 31, drawn to EPO analogs and compositions comprising same, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
- III. Claims 29 and 30, drawn to DNA encoding EPO and a host cell comprising same, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.
- IV. Claims 38-44, drawn to fusion proteins comprising EPO analogs, classified in class 530, subclass 350.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used to isolate EPO receptor or as a cell culture medium additive.

Although there are no provisions under the section for "Relationship of Inventions" in M.P.E.P. § 806.05 for inventive groups that are directed to different products, restriction is deemed to be proper because these products constitute patentably distinct inventions for the following reasons. Groups II-IV are directed to products that are distinct both physically and functionally, are not required one for the other, and are therefore patentably distinct. Further, the protein of Group II can be prepared by processes which are materially different from recombinant DNA expression of Group III, such as by chemical synthesis, or by isolation and purification from natural sources. The DNA of Group III can be used other than to make the protein of Group II, such in gene therapy or as a probe in nucleic acid hybridization assays. The fusion proteins of Group IV can be made independently from the protein of Group I, such as from a chimeric DNA construct. The fusion protein of Group IV can also be made independently from the DNA of Group III, such as by chemical synthesis.

Inventions I and each of III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together and have different modes of operation. The method of Group I simply does not require the products of Groups III or IV.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, separate search requirements, and different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1646

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

It is noted that claims 11 and 12 refer to the analog of claim 9; however claim 9 is directed to a method. Applicant may wish to correct this error before examination on the merits.
